Had we en given only 24 hours warning of their coming the boys would all have eem on hand, but from 8 until 11 o' clock in the morning is rather short notice and especially on the week of the Cambridge fair. Those who were not at the fair were at work and could not be gathered together in so short a time. It was what the boys call "not a fair deal." We are not giants, neither do we run from them for giants are not always victorious in these days any more than they were in David's day.

WHITE CREEK

A much respected and beloved res dent of White Creek passed away when Emily Myers Rouse, wife of John Rouse died Sunday, September 12, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Benedict Ward Niles. Although frail health and a great sufferer the end came quickly and suddenly. Mrs. Rouse was born February 25, 1826 in Old Saratoga. January 29, 1861 she was united in marriage to Mr. Rouse, the greater part of her life being spent in North Adams. For the past ton years she has resided here. Her happy nature and pleasing -manner won for her many friends. The funeral was held from the home of her are some fodlish people who daughter Tuesday, September 14 and was largely attended.
